

Covenant Home School Group Membership Application

Covenant Home School Group is a biblically guided community and operates under a statement of faith. Membership in the group is open to all, however, leadership roles may be held only by members who demonstrate and believe the truths and principles outlined in our statement of faith and who provide a personal testimony.

A $5 annual membership fee is required for active participation. At a minimum, the fee entitles the Member to a membership card, the opportunity to vote on issues affecting the group, a membership packet, inclusion in the e-group, and inclusion in the group directory.
