

Mission Statement

We exist as a group to help each other raise and educate our children according to God's concepts rather than man's.

We desire to bring our children up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, helping them to be all He intended; children who walk in love, are secure in who they are, and know their worth because they are created unique and precious. The daily work of home schooling requires faith, prayer, encouragement, honesty, trusted friendship, and humor.

We are a community within our communities, standing together for the present and the future of our children.
